8 Things to Remember in the New Year

1. Everything can and will change
2. You've overcome challenges before
3. It's a learning experience
4. Not getting what you want can be a blessing
5. Allow yourself to have some fun
6. Being kind to yourself is good medicine, being kind to others is the BEST medicine
7. Other people's negativity isn't worth worrying about – offer them a smile and a prayer
8. And last – there is always, always, always, something to be thankful for!

New Year's 2019

Mass Schedule

Dec 31st New Year's Eve – 4pm

Jan 1, 2019 New Year's Day – 9am

The members of the St. Vincent dePaul Society would like to thank all the generous parishioners and CCD students who donated in any way to the Christmas food baskets, food pantry or Giving Tree. Your response to our call was overwhelming and the families whom you helped are immensely grateful for your kindness. THANK YOU and May God bless you and your family many times over for your generosity.

Dear Parishioners,

Once there was a college professor who had good rapport with his students. One afternoon, about fifteen minutes before class, he saw one of his students smoking a cigarette. He approached and requested one for himself. The student graciously complied but was a little surprised because he knew the professor well and had heard him say that he intended to quit smoking. So the student asked about the matter, saying, "Weren't you going to quit?" The teacher replied, "Yes. I did say that and I was going to, but unfortunately my resolve isn't very strong". The student then said, "Oh. I understand". Curious about how his teacher did with it, though, he then asked, "Well, when did you try to quit?" To which the teacher said, "This morning".

The resolutions we make in life, whether they are to break bad habits or to adopt good ones are never easy. When it comes to our faith and our friendships with God (our spiritual lives), the same thing is true. But if we take the time to ask God which resolutions that He would like us to make this year, we ask Him how He would like us to go about them, and we rely on His power and grace instead of on our own will power and pride to make changes in our lives, then we will grow. For Christians, changing-becoming better people, is more about disposing ourselves to receive God's gifts than it is about actively pursuing goals. It is good to desire to become better and to be relentless and diligent in doing our part, but we are called to always remember that, at the end of the day, everything is grace. Everything good that we have-even the goodness of our character, our virtue, and the success we have had in life-is a gift from God.

In Him, Fr. D
