Dear Parishioners:

Happy 4th of July! Even in spite of the many challenges we have faced over the last year and a half, it is a great blessing time be able to celebrate the independence of our nation. Reflecting upon the independence of the United States of America is extremely moving because it reminds us to appreciate the hard work and sacrifices of so many who have given so much of themselves in order to provide us with the gifts and privileges we have. However, it also gives us pause to reflect about the nature of true freedom. True freedom is a gift that God offers to us through His Son Jesus Christ. Usually when we talk about freedom we are talking about it only in terms of the experiences we have in the world around us. Freedom pertains to having our own autonomy, in preserving fundamental human rights, etc. And certainly freedom does mean all of these things and much more. But freedom-real freedom-also encompasses our interior disposition and experience. True freedom includes liberation from sin, its consequences, self/one's ego, and attachments to the goods of this world (both material and psychological-power, popularity, success, and the like). So as we celebrate our nation and call to mind the great principles upon which it is established, we are invited to do some deep soul-searching and prayer so as to really connect deeply with Almighty God and cultivate in ourselves the authentic American patriotism which is rooted in God.

In Him, Fr. D

Happy 4th of July
